

PARTICIPATE IN THE ALASKA REDISTRICTING PROCESS!

Why Participate in Redistricting?

- District lines impact whether you can elect the candidate of your choice for the next 10 years.
- You can help make sure that the Alaska Native voice is not weakened through racial gerrymandering or retrogression.

Public Hearing Sites & Schedule:

The Alaska Redistricting Board is hosting public hearings in the following communities to seek input on its draft redistricting plan. The Board will have 60 days to finalize their plan. Visit www.akredistricting.org for the detailed schedule.

Anchorage	Dillingham	Hoonah	Palmer or Wasilla
Angoon	Dutch Harbor	Juneau	Petersburg
Bethel	Fairbanks	Kenai	Seward
Barrow	Galena	Ketchikan	Sitka
Cold Bay	Glennallen	King Salmon	Skagway
Cordova	Haines	Kodiak	Tok
Craig	Healy	Kotzebue	Valdez
Delta Junction	Homer	Nome	Wrangell

ANYONE can provide testimony to the Redistricting Board:

We highly encourage you to express concerns, ideas, or propose plans to the Board at any public hearing by May 6th or by sending a letter by May 13th to:
Alaska Redistricting Board / 411 West 4th Ave, Suite 302 / Anchorage, AK / 99501

Voting Rights Act - Section 5 Pre-Clearance Requirement:

Alaska's redistricting process is subject to federal review before a plan can be finalized - you may express concerns or ideas to:

Chief, Voting Section - Civil Rights Division / Room 7254 – NWB, Department of Justice /
950 Pennsylvania Ave., NW / Washington, DC 20530

by phone: 1-800-253-3931 or by email: Voting.Section@usdoj.gov

If you have any questions, please contact the Alaska Native Policy Center at First Alaskans Institute: anpc@firstalaskans.org or 907-677-1700.

