

“It’s not just numbers. It’s not just statistics, but it’s our stories. It’s the stories of our life. It’s the story of our truths that we share as families, that we share as a collective.”
- Charlene Aqpiq Apok (Iñupiaq), Date For Indigenous Justice Director & Co-Founder

Save the Date!

Virtual Missing & Murdered Indigenous Relatives Tribunal & Summit

an FAI Truth, Racial Healing & Transformation (TRHT) Event

A forum to hear Alaska Native truth-telling about our missing and murdered relatives, work on inter-generational healing, and co-create solutions to transform Alaska.

Warming of the Hands Opening Gathering Monday, April 18, 6-8pm

Time to help us prepare for the next few days together

Tribunal, Truth Telling Space Tuesday-Wednesday, April 19-20, 9am-closing

A truth sharing space about our missing and murdered relatives and the impacts this has on our families, communities, cultures, and languages

Summit – Solution-Making Space Thursday, April 21, 10am-4pm

We’ll roll up our sleeves together, reflect on the truths we heard, and focus on the actions and strategy needed to transform and heal this ongoing crisis

Optional - Post-Tribunal Reflection Time May 13, 1-4pm

If you or someone you know may be interested in participating or would like to know more about it, please email us at anpc@firstalaskans.org.